-The three deadest men, politically, in America to-day, are Rutherford B. Hayes, John Sherman, and Stanley Matthews, three great Ohio lights, who, since the 4th of March, have been running the Government machinery. The people of his own State have stamped "fraud" upon the brow of Hayes and declared that he was not elected President. John Sherman's old constituents have repudiated Improved by a large and well built

> -- At the mouth of the Humber river, England, is an island which 130 years ago comprised an area of two and a half quare miles. Subsequently it came into the possession of the Crown, which granted new leases on condition that at least 2,700 acres of alluvial deposits which had accumulated around the original embankment should be reclaimed. Not only was this secured, but as further depos-its were made they also were reclaimed. In 1875 the leases fell in, and the island was relet for $67,250 a year. It has still plenty of room to grow.

> During the last nine months the United States exported to England 86,-132,730 pounds of fresh beef and 1,883, pounds of mutton. The total exports of meate to the Old World for the period mentioned amounted in value to $11,-226,560. There were also exported 12,-828,630 pounds of butter and 75,917,449 pounds of cheese, an increase in these ines of 33 per cent. over 1876.

-Miss Minnie E. Hodges, who has ust resigned the position of cashier and order clerk in the Des Moines, Iowa, Post Office, handled and paid out during six years $4,000,000, and never made a mistake of a cent. At times she had charge of the whole office, with twenty-five and thirty clerks under her direction.

-At Waterfond, Pa., last Saturday night, fifteen disguised men stripped, tarred and feathered, and rode on a rail an unfortunate woman who had incurred prices, their displeasure by her misbehavior.
